

The Big (not so) Bad Wolf

A Children's Show About Bullying.

ITheatre is proud to present The Big \(not so\) Bad Wolf May 23, 24 & 25 2012 as a field lesson at the Braught Memorial Theater located at 525 S. Kansas Ave. Weslaco, Texas 78596. This show deals with the national epidemic of bullying. The show will take young learners on a comedic journey through the Fairy Tale Forest and show how the characters deal with bullying.

The Braught Memorial Theater can accommodate 170 people and could expand seating to a total of 200 people. Since the theater is on the Weslaco Public Library complex we encourage you to include the library as part of your field lesson. The Braught Memorial Theater is also within walking distance of the Weslaco Museum and the Weslaco City Fire Department.

The Big \(not so\) Bad Wolf is a one hour long show dealing with bullies and what to do if you or someone you know is bullied. The show is a children's comedy with a profound message about standing up for yourself and others. We are accepting reservations now for field lessons for the scheduled dates. The play is scheduled to be performed throughout the day from 9 am – 2 pm. Admission to the play is $5.00 per person. Everyone entering the theater must purchase a ticket. Half priced chaperone tickets will be determined by ITheatre of Texas.

ITheatre will provide educators / parents with lesson plans specific to the nature of this show. This show will be performed by adults and children from different school districts throughout the RGV. At the conclusion of the show, ITheatre actors will have a short meet and greet with attending students.

Please contact me if you have any questions, thanks.
